TRE BICCHIERI

"Best wines of Lombardy"

ARRIVING MID-DECEMBER 2020!

A family-owned winery since the early 1800s, Il Mosnel produces estate-grown sparkling wines from organically certified vineyards, with a profile that is remarkably powerful yet fine. Very high density plantings, low yields (52 hectoliters per hectare), and partial fermentation in oak give the wines their depth, while the gentle handling and aging of minimum 2 ½ years allow them to come together seamlessly.

With the introduction of the Franciacorta DOC in 1968, owner Emanuela Barboglio was able to wisely guide the winery into specialized, high-quality winegrowing. Today, her two children, Giulio and Lucia Barzanò, have accepted the challenge of this priceless inheritance and are committed to handing it on, with increased lustre, to future generations.

FRANCIACORTA BRUT NV

The flagship cuvée that constitutes the foundation of the Mosnel house style. At least 24 months sur lie allows this Brut to reach a perfect stylistic equilibrium. It boasts a subtle white-gold hue, and a slender, silky bead of pin-point bubbles. A refined aromatic medley of elderflower and hawthorn blossom nuances, crisp Mediterranean citrus, pear and apple, apricot and melon, along with subtle impressions of wild herbs and almonds. Crisp fruit and a tangy acidity are gloriously abundant in the mouth, concluding with a finish that is long-lingering, elegant, and beautifully balanced.

Chardonnay | Pinot Blanc | Pinot Noir | 4.0 g/l dosage
(6x750ml) $162 150/2 135/3

FRANCIACORTA BRUT NATURE NV

The debut of this new cuvée made solely from organically-grown grapes pays homage to the quintessence of the vineyard and to the utter harmony of nature's components. This assemblage of elegant Chardonnay and subtly fruity Pinot Blanc, with a judicious tot of Pinot Noir to lend structure, matures sur lie for a minimum of 24 months in the cellar. Revealing in the glass a luminous white-gold with pale green highlights, it opens to a thrust of vibrant, crisp fragrances, with cleanly-delineated citron and grapefruit melding gracefully into floral impressions of honeysuckle and verbena, with just a hint of iodine. At the same time, it conveys crisp fruit notes of white peach and gooseberry, marked by the generous effusion classic to youth, which equally characterises the full-volumed palate, taut, and energy-laden that concludes with a lively, full-flavoured finish.

Chardonnay | Pinot Blanc | Pinot Noir | No Dosage

FRANCIACORTA ROSÉ NV

A deeply-fragrant rosé whose crisp, graceful Chardonnay finds its delicious complement in the fruit-rich depth of Pinot Noir and the supple roundedness of Pinot Blanc. All the grapes are gently pressed, and the wine develops its harmonious character over more than 24 months of maturation sur lie. Its gold-edged, powder-pink hue hints at fresh picked redcurrants and cherries on the nose, which then develop into ultra-crisp apricot and wild strawberry, peony petals and blood oranges, plus a subtle vein of fresh almond and cotton candy. It opens generously, with energy-laden impressions of succulent, fresh picked pomegranate and red apple, a complexity enlivened by a slender yet tangy sapidity.

Pinot Noir | Chardonnay | Pinot Blanc | 5.5 g/l dosage
(6x750ml) $180 150/2

(1) 10-Year Tawny (1) Vintage 2017

NOVAL BLACK

Noval BLACK is a revolutionary style of ruby port. The bright aromatics, incredible freshness and perfect balance bring it outside the stodgy “vintage-character” category.

It is a clear expression of the Noval style, no ageing and no decanting necessary. No complications, just a great glass of Port. 50% of the grapes are trodden by foot in lagares, traditional stone vats from the Quinta.

91 PTS “A staple for a new generation of Port drinkers” — W&S

90 PTS “Pointed, ripe and chock full of flavor” — Wine Advocate

3 $154.25 (2) Noval Black, (2) Ruby Port,
(1) 10-Year Tawny (1) Vintage 2017

RUBY PORT

A deep-colored lively, peppery wine full of fresh fruit flavors, Noval Ruby Port it is bottled after three years in cask. An ideal Port for informal drinking. Tinta Roriz, Touriga Franca and Tinta Barroca predominate among the traditional grape varieties of the Demarcated Region of the Douro Valley.

“Bright Ruby color. Intense youthful nose with a distinctive fruity character reminiscent of wild cherries. On the palate is well balance, with intense fruit and good length. Drink slightly chilled as an aperitif or at room temperature with a dessert.”

— Carlos Agrellos, Technical Director

TAWNY PORT

Tawny Port is lighter and softer than Ruby Port. It is an elegant, delicate wine with an amber hue and a fresh finish. It is a blend of wines with an average age of 3 years, aged in oak wooden vats.

“Intense brick color. It has a more complex nose than the Ruby, showing youthful fruit with a raspberry character. On the palate It is medium sweet with a well balanced fruit and richness.” — Carlos Agrellos, Technical Director

10-YEAR-OLD TAWNY PORT

Noval 10 year old Tawny is a blend of old Ports from different vintages that have matured in oak casks, with an average age of 10 years. It has acquired the classical attributes of an old Tawny Port, while at the same time retaining much of the freshness and fruit of its youth.

92 PTS “A fresh, vibrant style, showing cherry and red currant pâte de fruit notes, with blood orange and rooibos tea flavors. Light cinnamon and mineral nuances add to the streamlined finish.” — Wine Spectator

LBV SINGLE VINEYARD UNFILTERED 2013

Treated exactly like a Vintage Port with fruit sourced exclusively from estate vineyards, trodden by foot and unfiltered. This expression differs in its extended aging, seeing five years in casks instead of the typical two years for Vintage Ports. An LBV with a difference, this wine has fine structured tannins with great freshness and purity of fruit.

“A very rich wine presenting ripe black fruits and spices. Fine but solid tannins give the wine its structure of great amplitude and a long and flavourful aftertaste. It is made to be enjoyed as soon as it is bottled.”

— Carlos Agrellos, Technical Director

VINTAGE PORT 2017

Characterized by its purity of fruit and a fine, delicate quality that is typical of the wines of the property, but which finds its most remarkable and enduring expression in the Vintage Ports. Equilibrium, harmony, finesse and elegance characterize these great Vintage Ports, which are declared only in the most exceptional years and only when the wines come up to Noval's exacting standards.

98 PTS “The long finish lets the fruit play out” — Wine Spectator

97 PTS “Wonderfully fragrant and intense” — Wine Advocate

LUCIEN LE MOINE

2018 VINTAGE SELECTIONS

VNY

VINTUS NEW YORK

LUCIEN LE MOINE

AN OVERVIEW

In two decades of work, Lucien Le Moine has become one of the most talked about Burgundy producers, making some of the most sought after wines from the region. The approach is extreme – two people, together doing everything by hand, working with a dazzling array of Burgundy's great terroirs. In the late 1980s, Mounir Saouma's visit to a Trappist monastery in the Middle East led to a prolonged stay during which he worked in the monastery vineyards and first learned to make wine. He subsequently studied Viticulture and Oenology in Montpellier, followed by six years working in Burgundy, other areas of France, and California. During this time he became fascinated by traditional methods of viticulture, vinification, and aging. In 1999 he decided to push to the extreme all he had seen and experienced, and with his wife Rotem created a small cellar dedicated to the philosophy of making wines of purity and typicity.

Rotem comes from a cheese-making family, and studied agriculture in Dijon, eventually orienting her studies toward wine. After winning a national prize from the French Academy of Agriculture for her study of the Côte d'Or, she participated in numerous harvests in Burgundy and California. The name for Mounir and Rotem's winery, Lucien Le Moine, is comprised of two references: the Lebanese "Mounir" means light, hence the equivalent French "Lucien"; "Le Moine" translates as "the monk", and refers to Mounir's initial wine experiences at the monastery.

From their years spent in Burgundy, Mounir and Rotem knew many superb growers in the region. They devoted themselves to select production of Crus from these growers. They only produce Grands and Premiers Crus, trying each year to have the most beautiful Crus in each village. They revise their selection of Crus every year, depending on the quality of a particular vineyard in a given vintage, but do not produce any more than 100 barrels (2,500 cases), the absolute maximum for Mounir, who feels that any greater production would rob him of the ability to give each his personal touch.

The couple produces one to three barrels from each Cru. This provides the biggest technical challenge, since each barrel needs to be perfect, from selection, through aging, to bottling: there is no blending to cover up even the slightest errors at the end. They work with growers who are scrupulous with their vines, taste the wines very early (right after press), vinify (in the case of whites) or guide vinification in the methods they prefer (emphasizing phenolic ripeness, acid retention, and some employment of whole clusters), and put the wines in their barrels. All wines are aged entirely on their lees. Gentle batonnage is done a few times a month, less or more depending on the vintage, and the wine is never racked during this process.

The cellar is naturally humid and very cool, which pushes malolactic fermentations late into summer. The natural CO₂ produced during these long fermentations allows Mounir to use little SO₂ (it should be noted it is best to decant all Lucien Le Moine wines as they can have some residual CO₂). Once malolactic fermentation is complete, he and Rotem follow each barrel, tasting several times a month. Bottling is done by hand via gravity feed when the wine is ready, always after a full moon (when atmospheric pressure is favorable). No fining, filtration, or addition of sulphur takes place at bottling.

BRUCE SANDERSON

ON THE LUCIEN LE MOINE 2018 VINTAGE

Mounir Saouma, proprietor of the boutique négociant Lucien Le Moine in Beaune, typically interprets vintages differently than many other domaines and merchants in Burgundy. The 2018 vintage is a case in point. While many 2018s are already in bottle and some can already be found on local wine lists, the Lucien Le Moine cuvées are still resting in barrel, unracked and without any sulfur.

Saouma likes to disrupt the malolactic conversion to prolong the fermentation process and slow down the aging of the wines. He also likes to have plenty of lees, about 6 liters' worth in each barrel to nourish the nascent wines. While his 2018 Pinot Noirs are now clear and reflecting their terroirs, his Chardonnays are still cloudy, full of carbonic gas and relatively unformed.

"I don't care about the fruit; we are building the aftertaste and the texture," he explains, referring to his whites. "It's very easy to make good white wines, but very complicated to make great white wines. They are born with nothing, so it takes a long time to build them."

He describes 2018 as having a hot summer, but with "fake" heat. "There was a lot of freshness inside the grapes, and the acidity wasn't high, but beautiful," he says. He thinks the new generation of successful vintages is the fresh years. "Since 2000, the warm vintages are no longer the classical vintages," he adds, preferring the cooler harvests of 2002, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2011 and 2013. Saouma goes on to say that the fresh vintages have a lot of rain in the spring. He also notes that whereas 2018 had warm days in August, there were also cold nights. In addition, the harvest, which normally takes about a week on the Côte d'Or, was drawn out over a month. Though it started early, Aug. 20, for the parcels Lucien Le Moine purchases (as finished wine), it was spread out as different vineyards and even parcels within the same vineyard, ripened unevenly. The last picking, in the same vineyards that the harvest began, was Sept. 18.

At pressing, in October, the wines reflected their terroirs; by March the following year, they all tasted the same, notes Saouma. And finally, almost a year later, they are expressing purity of place again.

"Saouma likes to describe his cellar as a library of Burgundy's finest terroirs. That's as good a description as any for these uniformly outstanding, compelling wines." — ANTONIO GALLONI

COLLECTIBLE BORDEAUX

Christian Moueix and Château Margaux were among the small group of producers that VINTUS launched with in 2004, and our approach has remained the same since then: to establish deep relationships with great producers. In the time since we have started with Christian Moueix' Château La Fleur-Petrus, it has skyrocketed to become one of Pomerol and Bordeaux' top collectibles, and is likely the most highly sought after wine from Bordeaux that is sold on an exclusive basis in the United States. Château Malescot Saint-Exupéry in Margaux is a relatively small left bank property, and the wines are snapped up every year by buyers who appreciate their quality position and consistent value. Our relationship importing Quinta do Noval has led us to interesting and little imported wines in their company's Bordeaux portfolio. And on and on.

Bordeaux can be a misunderstood region. We simply look at it as any other great wine producing region: we want to work with people who have a deep connection to their estates, and a beautiful vision of how they should work to make extraordinary wines that transmit their sites.
